

NAME: _____

ECONOMICS U.S.A.: INTERNATIONAL TRADE

1. Why did Rep. John Dingell favor "real quotas and domestic content requirements?"
2. What is a domestic content requirement?
3. What did Reagan Administration Trade Negotiator William Brock do to keep Congress from establishing these "real quotas?"
4. What is the argument in opposition to protecting the domestic automobile marketplace?
5. What was the "A.D.M." sticker found in the early 80s on Japanese cars?
6. How much did American consumers pay in order to save one job in the domestic automobile marketplace?
7. What is meant by "fair trade?"
8. Why does Rep. Dingell think that foreign companies are "dumping" steel on the U.S. market?
9. What does the "Trigger Price Mechanism" use as the price which triggers dumping investigations?
10. What is the generic name for complicated licensing procedures and strict safety requirements?